WASHINGTON

VOL. XV.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1896.

No. 2.

HON. NATHAN F. DIXON.

HON. NATHAN F. DIXON.

Ex-Senator Nathan Fellow Dixon of Westerly, was born at Westerly, R. I., August 28, 1847; and was prepared for college at Westerly and Phillip's Academy, Andover; was graduated from Brown University in 1869; studied law under his father, Hon. Nathan F. Jonathan Chase to the United States Senate, and was elected April 10, 1889, to the United States Senate as a republican to succeed Jonathan Chase, resigned. His term as Senator expired March 3, 1895.

They Say

The negroes need not apply.
The St. Louis Hotels don't want them.
Why not organize an Afro-American Party?
What use is it for the negro to go to St. Louis?
The time is coming for the Afro-American to be either a man or a monkey.
If he is to be a man now is the time for him to assert himself.
He is an enemy to himself.
We must be one thing or the other.
The time is now for the Afro-Americans to act.
The Democrats of Arkansas will not permit negro democrats to vote.
Why should they be the slaves and serfs of any party?
It is the great man and the honest people who will not discriminate.
All things will come right one of these days.
Do you want to be recognized as men and citizens?
"The world is a stage and the people are players."
"They make their exit and their entrances."
"Man plays many parts."
Parties are what you make them.
Mr. Oliver C. Black has preferred charges against Hon. H. C. Smith, United States Counsel at Santos, Brazil.
The report is that the Department is displeased.
The Personal Liberty League will celebrate.
It is the truth that stings.
A lie never effects anyone.
The BEE is the greatest paper in the District of Columbia.
All others are hand-bills.
Afro-American editions to which The BEE refers.
Since Colored Attorneys in Maryland are taking no interest in Neale's and Randolph's defense, why should Washington Attorneys interest themselves?
The lawyer who has volunteered to defend had better take the advice of The BEE.
The best element? In Maryland means to hang some negro, guilty or innocent.
The greatest men in the country are those who do the greatest deeds for the benefit of humanity.
Who will it be at the St. Louis Convention.
There is but little show for Afro-Americans.
Let us be true to ourselves.
There will be a tornado one of these cloudy days that will shake the world.
Be watchful and be true.
Hewlett is the coming judge of one of the Police Court Branches.
It is not well to keep judges on the bench too long.
The BEE is the best newspaper in the United States.
Judge Miller gave certain police officers a lecture for firing a pistol in the street.
If you want the news read The BEE.
If you want to advertise for a place bring it to The BEE.
Don't fail to send in your wants and for rent to The BEE.
The BEE is the paper that defends the people.
It is the people's defender.
The South Washington people are improving.
Lookout for the enlarged edition of The BEE.
It will be the greatest Afro-American paper in the world.

IS RANDOLPH GUILTY?

Two of our most competent and most reliable detectives on the force Messrs Horn and Weeden, declare that Randolph, who is charged with having committed murder or attempted murder, is not guilty.

The Maryland white people are anxious to kill some one. They would prefer to hang a negro, because they cannot find who the white man is who attempted the murderous assault upon the Buxton family. Public sentiment however, is against the men, and it is hoped something will be done to change the tidal wave of prejudice.

WITHOUT AUTHORITY.

Will President T. T. Fortune and Chairman, Mr. W. H. Stewart, please inform the Press gang by what authority they removed the meeting of the Press Association from New York City to St. Louis?

GENERAL CLARKSON.

It was indeed an act of gratitude on the part of the people, to have remembered General Jas. S. Clarkson. There is no man in this country more deserving than this distinguished statesman and politician.

He is the people's benefactor and friend, irrespective of color or condition.

The Bee is gratified to know that Gen'l. Clarkson has improved sufficiently to be up and out again.

REV. LAWS ON MR. QUAY.

There is no name before this country, nor can one be presented to the National Republican Convention at St. Louis, more deservedly interesting and meritorious than that of Honorable Matthew Stanley Quay, U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania.

The state is the richest in revenue, 2nd, in population, largest in republican majorities and the birth-place of the Grand Old Party, whose motto is, the "home of the brave and the land of the free."

Though her modesty since the days of James Buchanan has silenced her Presidential ambition, yet, her numerical proof for national claims, demand for her the right of way before the American people.

At least, June the 16th will inform the universe what she means by these assertions.

R. S. Laws.

THE COLOR LINE.

There is a desire on the part of some to blame the National Committee for selecting St. Louis, knowing that color prejudice existed there.

The committee is no more to blame than those who had nothing to do with carrying the convention to St. Louis.

Our contemporary, the Daily Post, takes a philosophical view of the situation and concludes its article by saying it is a mistake.

Hon. Mark Hanna having learned that the colored delegates were being discriminated against, telegraphed to his managers to secure quarters for them regardless of expense.

This move on the part of Mr. Hanna is commendable and the colored delegates cannot help but appreciate it.

AN AFRO-AMERICAN PARTY.

Parties are what you make them as much as life is what you make it. It is evident that the democratic party doesn't want the Afro-American any more than the republican #### party.

The Negro politician has past his usefulness; he is not what he used to be; his importance has been magnified and he has arrogated to himself that he holds the balance of power in the body politic.

It depends upon who is nominated at either of the conventions before we can decide what part the Afro-American will play in the next Presidential election.

There is a prevailing sentiment in this country detrimental to the Afro-American and unless he can do something to redeem himself, he will find that neither party will have him.

The Afro-American is losing his opportunities.

It is claimed the Afro-American cannot organize a party. This we deny. While there may be jealousy within the rank and file of the race, still he has the ability to organize. He must organize for his own interest.

He must accumulate money and property and establish such business enterprises that will command the respect of the nation.

We believe in the organization of an Afro-American party.

There is nothing better than organization.

Organization is a medium through which all nations advance and prosper.

If there is an Afro-American party organized we are confident that the race will be more respected and would be a stronger factor in the body politic.

GRAVE DOUBTS.

The nomination of Major McKinley seems to be conceded by leading politicians in this country, but his election is in doubt and this comes from his chief manager, Mark Hanna.

The democrats always make a peculiar move on the republicans who don't seem to catch on.

The silver issue is a democratic issue to defeat the republicans and from the present outlook, it is evident that there will be trouble in the camp of the republican party. All is not gold that glitters.

CONGER'S MOVE.

Mr. Frank Conger made a peculiar move at St. Louis on Wednesday. What the gentlemen should have done, if they wanted representation, is to have elected six delegates and six alternates and requested the National Convention to admit them.

TROUBLE IN ST. LOUIS.

The action of the Committee, on Credentials in unseating all of the anti-McKinley delegates, will no doubt do harm to the party.

Mr. Platts' claims cannot be treated with impunity. He belongs to that wing of the republican party that has always protected the liberties of the people.

The country has faith in Mr. Platt and the opposers to him had better take warning.

EMRICH'S BEEF CO.

The Emrich Beef Company is no doubt one of the largest in this city.

As a benefactor Mr. Emrich has no equal.

He is a liberal hearted man and a true philanthropist.

He is a liberal contributor to the churches, and especially those who have been in need of assistance.

He is a friend to the colored people and they should show their appreciation of him by their patronage.

If Mark Hanna can run the campaign throughout as successfully as he has been thus far, there is no doubt that the republican party will win.

The colored delegates may not be "in it" at St. Louis.

On the 26th of this month Ford will pay the penalty of his crime.

The democrats are of the opinion they can defeat the republican nominee.

THE BUXTON MURDER.

Do the people of Maryland want the true murderers of Buxton's? The BEE would suggest to the people to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the perpetrators of the Buxton tragedy and The BEE will aid them in bringing the guilty parties to the Bar of Justice.

Let the reward be offered.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY TRIPS TO THE COUNTRY.

Co., will sell excursion tickets, at the rate of one fare for the round trip, for regular trains on Saturday and Sunday, to points on the Metropolitan Branch and Main Line between Washington, Harper's Ferry, and Charlestown, and to points on the Washington branch between Washington and Laurel.

WE GO TO DAY.

The Special Coach, under the direction of Captain Oliver, of Baltimore and W. Calvin Chase will leave B. and O. Depot to-day for St. Louis, Mr. Robert H. Key and others will be in this coach.

UP TO DATE.

Mr. Earnshaw one of the best known merchants in this city has improved his place of business by putting in electric fans.

Mr. Gardner is also making preparations to place electric fans in his three stores.

IS IT OUT OF ORDER?

You have a bicycle that is out of order. Your bicycle cost not more than $100. At any rate it is a first-class one. You want it done up in a first-class order, don't you? You know none but first-class firms can do up a first-class bicycle.

Having occasion to visit the Mott School Building, a representative of The Bee paid a short visit to the Principal, Dr. W. B. Evans. The tone of the doctor's class-room was excellent, and some fine work, tables, chests, etc., products of the carpenter-shop attached to the school were shown.

The East Washington Bicycle Club re-organized with the following officers. President, William Clinkins; Vice-President, H. Clay; Secretary, O. Wright; Treasurer, W. McKinley. Their number of riders is twenty.

The Peanut Grab at the Macedonia Baptist Church, Monday evening was largely attended.

Miss Bessie Lear, of this Village, who is teaching at Westwood, will after her school closes spend the remainder of the Summer at Asbury Park.

While driving home last Saturday evening Mr. James Quarrels' horse became unmanageable and ran a way. The driver was thrown to the ground and received probably fatal injuries.

The members of Hillsdale C. M. E. Church gave an Evening Social last Wednesday at the residence of Mrs. John Taylor, of Sheridan Avenue. Many attended and a pleasant evening was spent.

Hon. S. G. Brown will read a poem of Salutation at the Methodist Conference to be held in Washington, D. C. next week.

CAPTAIN JAMES H. OWENS.

Captain James H. Owens, of the National Soldiers Home, Virginia, is the founder of John A. Dix Command, No. 11. This Command was one of the first to be gotten up south of the Masons and Dixon's line. The well-known John Brown's command of Norfolk, Va is the first and Captain Owens has the honor of getting up both Commands, which to-day stands a monument to the colored race. Six years ago, Captain Owens became a member of Robert G. Thore's Command, No. 4, of this city, and he has been a member of John W. Jackson's Post, G. A. R. 27, Philadelphia, Pa for twenty-five years. Prof. James H. Owens is also one of the leaders of the Union Veteran's Union, being the recruiting officer for his State and North Carolina.

There is no man in the South a greater lover of his race and its advancement than Captain Owens.

The grounds in which 659 soldiers are buried was dedicated in 1892 and in the old cemetery in Virginia Captain Owens stated 6,600 are buried and 7,400 are unknown.

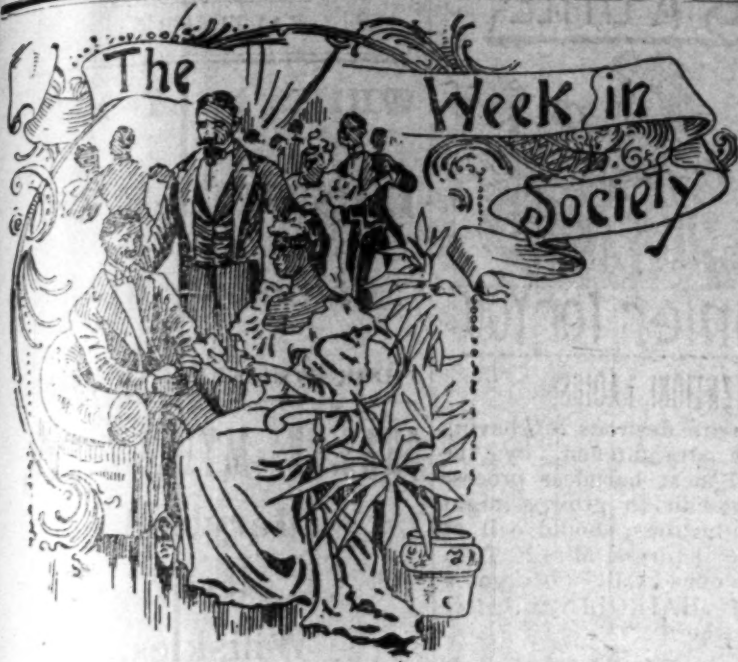

Prof. George W. Cook will spend the Summer at New Port, Rhode Island.

CHASE A KICKER?

LET US REPLY.
(From The National Protest.)

There is no man connected with the colored press of the country better known than W. Calvin Chase of the Washington Bee. He is known as the great "kicker," and he has made Washington a very uncomfortable place, for many of the negro leaders, who thought that the National Capital could not exist without their important presence. Great improvement has been made in The Bee within the past year and its carrying more advertisements than any negro paper published. Mr. Chase is a man of energy, push and determination and never gives up as long as there is a possibility of success in his efforts. The Bee is a permanent fixture in Washington and will live to do much good for the race at the National Capital.

Pensioners who want their papers properly made out are requested to call and see W. Calvin Chase, Attorney at Law and Notary Public

GOOD ADVICE.

Miss Gertrude Smith of this city, who had a very pretty cottage at Highland Beach, Md., that was burned down some time ago came near being cheated out of 7½ per cent. of her insurance. It seems that she had her cottage insured in a Baltimore firm and after the fire she notified the agent who informed her that he would collect the money for 7½ per cent. She stated her case to Mr. L. G. Fletcher, who is also in the business, who advised her not to pay a cent to the man in whose company her house was insured. Mr. Fletcher took her case and will get her money which is justly due her. Miss Smith is one of the teachers in the Public Schools of this city.

The Bee can be found at Hyson's barber shop, 1144 15th st., n. w.

NOTICE.

Subscribers who do not receive their paper on Saturday will confer a favor upon the management by sending notice to The Bee office.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY, VIRGINIA ITEMS.

The Mount Olive Baptist Church, Rev. Washington Waller, pastor, baptised on Sunday last four happy souls in the Potomac River, at the South End of the Long Bridge, at Jackson City.

The large and religiously enthused crowd was very attractive to listeners on both sides of the river. The convenient location of both the Mt. Olive Church one square, and the Mt. Zion Church three squares from the new Electric Cars, present the greatest inducement of large numbers of visitors from this city to evening services there, who return by the last or 10.30 train from the town of Roslyn at the Aqueduct Bridge.

The large and beautiful lawn of Mrs. M. A. Ball was delightfully displayed with illuminating lights from Japanese lanterns and floral decoration, were fashionable ladies and gentlemen as well as the fraternal greeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty engaged the enjoyable attention of the community from 8 p. m. to 2 a. m. on Monday night last.

The growing community. The community like all other communities has some fine resident houses and building lots, and some struggling under subdued circumstances. The new order of things arising and the necessity for division and subdivision of the land into lots, greatly increase the population of both races from Washington and elsewhere.

Fine building lots in Arlingtonville and Nauckville 25 x 120 and 125 can be bought for prices from $50 to $200 per lot, on easy terms of $5 down cash and $1 per week, or $4 per month.

The handsome resident houses of the Wards, the Grays, the Holmes, G. Wright, L. Summerville, Wormley, Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. M. A. Ball, Mrs. Fannie Jackson, Mrs. L. Norris, Mrs. Carrie Bowen, School and others of Arlingtonville, and W. A. Rowe, T. Allen, the Thompsons, the Branhams, the Plummers, Mr. Thompson Gray and many others of Nauckville, are all productive evidences of racial progress and developments.

The handsome parlors and other departments of many of the houses shown to us by the ladies, establish the fact that social, religious and political improvements form those elements of our racial status; that are based upon approved methods of industry.

The Nauckville Post-Office, Nauckville is about two miles from the Arlington Post-Office, and with a Depot Station, School-house and Church, to the population of one hundred and fifty citizens are entitled to a post-office of their town.

NAUCKVILLE NOTES.

When a representative of The Bee alighted from the 9.15 train, which left the Baltimore and Potomac Depot over the Pennsylvania Railroad at 9 a. m., he met Mr. Nelson Wallace, who is deeply interested in the unpaid balance due the citizens of Arlingtonville and Nauckville as assessments of their houses at the time of their removals from the Arlington reservation.

He claims a balance of $277.88 for himself and sums varying from that sum down to $10 to others. These are due, he says by reason of the fact, that the Department stated that the balance due is still unappropriated by Congress.

Mr. William Plumer is greatly improving his home by adding another wing on to it, which not only beautifies his home, but adds to the beauty of the entire community.

Mr. William A. Rowe, who is one of the ablest and oldest politicians in the town was seen at his home upon the heights of Nauckville, and like Henson Thompson and Son, Carpenters and Builders, Eddie Branhams and others, over-looking the Main Avenue and the Passenger Stations, was asked his views, concerning further development of the town, and he answered that he can better answer that question when President McKinley takes his seat.

Do you entertain hopes of his nomination, asked The Bee man? Yes, answered Mr. Rowe immediately with emphasis. He added that The Bee is astray in its notions with others, who believe that the factional threats of the A. P. A. who detail several elements of charges against him, destroy his chances for the nomination.

Mere fashionable accomplishments are of small value. A business education will not unfit or hinder a girl from marrying, and certainly tends to make her home independent.

Since the wheel of fortune is so uncertain, with many unexpected and sudden reverses, it is always the part of wisdom for every girl to equip herself with some self-supporting trade.

The highest form of Christian life is self-denial for the good of others.

A means of ready self-support tends to increase the self-respect of any girl.

DORA: Grape seeds are removed from the mouth with the fingers. On leaving the table don't fold your napkin, but leave it just as you used it, beside your plate.

Even a cheerful word or smile mean a great deal to a good woman after her day's work is over, but even this some men fail to give.

RECYCLERS: Bloomers are an indispensable adjunct to a bicycle suit, and should also be worn by girls for golf, tennis, or all athletic sports.

A woman can, if she will, dignify any branch of useful labor.

Imaginary wrongs and exaggeration should never be encouraged. It is a sin that is indulged in by the old as well as the young.

REMEDY: To prevent swollen feet, rub the soles with Methylated Spirit twice every day; do not soak the feet in water but wash with a soaped flannel and then sponge.

A womanly woman is the possessor of a gentle, tender and considerate disposition, having sufficient strength of character to allow neither her head, heart or home to be disturbed by small things.

BESSIE: Cheap things are the most expensive, and you should stop throwing your earnings away.

GIRLS: Men are very peculiar and are ready to take the advantage of every little courtesy shown them. You all should be more careful.

The girl who is carried away with the idea that she is the most popular girl in town, presents a ridiculous appearance for her wiser-thinking sisters.

RACHEL: I cannot tell you exactly what you want to know. You should consult your parents. If the young man has been calling for three years, without making his purpose known, your parents should demand an explanation.

No girl should recognize a man on the street whom she met at an entertainment, without the second introduction, except they were thrown in each other's immediate company at the party.

The sooner my girls act more independently with young men, the more they will be sought after. Men are very queer beings, they do not appreciate what they can so readily get.

True conversation is an orderly interchange of ideas and not a battle of words. A good conversationalist is an ardent listener.

Developments are greater than requirements, hence all of the life should come from within.

SADIE: Your disagreeable duty will become a joy, when the whole force of your will and intelligence are brought to your perfect accomplishment.

Beware of the man who nerving an Ice Cream Saloon with a lady begins talking of poisonous fruits.

There is nothing that makes a girl more disliked than conceit or sarcasm.

The person who is always trying to show up other people's faults, only paint their own but the darker.

IDA: You were wrong to remain when you felt slighted. From what you said I am of the opinion that no insult was intended. You should have thought of pleasant things and tried to please and I am sure things would have ended by your being pleased.

We too often lay our own faults at the feet of some one else, which ends in a bad feeling towards us from every one.

NATURE: The person who continually laughs, without the slightest reason to feel amused, is either a fool or a knave.

A true person will always look you direct in the face, while conversing.

It is only the envious person who is all smiles to-day and all frowns to-morrow.

Beware of the person who has always a secret to tell about his so-called friends.

SOUTH WASHINGTON NEWS.

Mrs. Herietta Jackson Taylor, wife of Mr. Minor Taylor, died at her late residence, 236 L street, age 43 years.

She died Friday morning the 5th, and after the funeral on Saturday at 4 p. m., her remains were removed to manassas, Prince William County, Va., in which county she was born, at Millford. She left a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Branson, her husband and 8 of 13 children to mourn their loss.

The Afro American citizens of South Washington, who feel themselves locally aggrieved from many official neglects, are now deeply interested in the coming reforms in contemplation. The 17th, 17th, and 18th, legislative districts shall be no longer omitted in the political, industrial and scholastic patronage. For such they are looking to such men as William H. Thomas, J. W. Branson, M. Wilson, R. H. Key, Cornelius Adams and others interested in local improvement.

Mrs. Eliza V. Green, wife of Mr. George W. Green, one of Washington's largest property owners and best carpenters, is still very sick at their handsome residence, 815 2nd st., where she enjoys the best wishes of her many friends for an early recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hawkins have purchased a residence home, 1824 G street, Northeast, where they will soon permanently locate their large and interesting family.

They are some of the heirs of the old Hawkins' estate, 215 M street s. w. where the property was sold by order of the court.

Mrs. L. B. A. Tignor is still unable to be out of her sick chamber at 225 M street.

Mrs. M. L. Kelly, 603 1st st. is again out after an illness of five weeks.

EAST WASHINGTON NEWS.

The Rev R. V. Peyton at 242 14th street, is happily located in the immediate community of his church, the Mt. Zion, 16th street and N. C. Ave. He is an up-to-date pastor of the District, and has both a first-class bicycle and a horse and buggy, and with his gifted wife and fashionable home, he feels called upon as Mr. Robert Daggs and other Afro-American property owners, to take deep interest in the local improvements.

Mrs. A. R. Rollins is making improvements at her home, 4406 S. C. Avenue. She has been a school teacher in King George County, Virginia, for about twelve years, until the death of her parents, by a will made the only legal heir to their homestead.

The storm destruction of the Mount Zion Baptist Church, 12th and E sts., created for that congregation many friends and Rev. Mr. Banks feels it too. They are now using a tent, which will soon be remodeled into a handsome edifice.

They are a congregation of local energy and spiritual influence which entitles them to a righteous appreciation.

Israel Baptist Church, 11th and E, and the St. Cyprian Catholic churches, 12th and C sts., are other attractions.

The Columbia and the Metropolitan Electric Car Lines, both running immediately into East Washington, give the greatest advantage for the people desiring cheap homes.

WHAT THEY EXPECT.

If Major McKinley is nominated and elected the friends of the candidates expect to get big plums.

Milt Holland says that he will have the refusal of Recorder of Deeds or District Commissioner.

The opinion of The Bee is, he will be lucky if he gets anything at all.

Col. L. M. Saunders will be District Commissioner provided L. Q. Thompson of the Chronicle will permit it to be so.

Carson, the McKinley people say is not in it. He is in the soup this time.

L. C. Bailey is a candidate for Recorder of Deeds and hopes to get it.

Robert H. Key is not an applicant for office.

M. M. Parker will endeavor to dictate, but he is not in it. He has had his day.

Since all the small offices are under Civil Service the small fish, such as messengers, watchmen, etc., there will be nothing to get. They will have to press bricks to pay walker.
